Seen, Heard and Told

By The Editor

Our Mr. Terrell has been almost useless in his attendance upon Chancery Court this week, tho he, like the rest of us laymen, never knows a damn thing about what is going on.

These "parable" checks are going to be hard to get in the future, for a farmer has to plant legumes, acre for acre, with cotton. That's a hell of a note.

Clifton Collins Tribble is No. 13 on the local draft registration. I'll bet he will not get into the army before 1945.

Cousin Charlie Umbright "learned" me some new and complete phases of what we call Ferdinand here is Grenada.

Whenever the old lady gets after me, I hush her up with the threat that I am going back "home" to the hospital.

Our old Oxberry chum and friend, Patrick Ryan, who from his name must be a Swede, has been added to the population list of the GCW.

I expect I should have taken the four bits Babe Costilow offered me on subscription, for he probably got into derilment with the proceeds thereof.

That "Maryland" picture made me weep and soh and cry.

They have a new clerk at the Belmont.

Homer's theater stood the supremetest Tuesday night, when both Greenfield and Huffington, the inseparable twins of romance and song simultaneously attended.

It looks like America and Britain have called the Japs' bluff.

The work on the Yalobusha and Sehuna rivers is said to be approaching the starting point.

Paul Lockett, one of the brightest boys at Ole Mess, will become brighter if he carefully reads the GCW which his mama is now sending him.

Several are figuring on giving us an ad sometime before Christmas.

The job work that has beguiled our otherwise idle time this week was sincerely appreciated. We can still handle some more. Some unthoughtful people use the newspaper only to publicize (free) some of their pet schemes, but forget the newspaper when there is a money job.

Aint they sweet.

Hon. Milton Williams, of Memphis, is one of the many out of town attorneys attending court. Mr. Williams is engaged in a litiation seeking to set aside the judgment against certain lands in Tallahatchie Drainage District No. 1, among other matters.

Chick Lockett, too, will receive the glad tidings from Grenada at his new post at Marietta, Georgia. That is the home of Georgia's best county newspaper. With that and with Mississippi's best, Chick should get wisdom galore.

If Homer Williams had to compete every week with Tom Thum Weddings, Grenada-Winona football games and Ole Mess games, as he did last week, he will soon have to be selling some of those fox hounds, I "felt" for him last week.

Doctor Shelton, Tommie Rose, George Terrell, Wing, Joe Williams, Frankie (our cook) and a few others did not attend the game in Winona last Friday. Add to that list those helpless in the hospital, and a few over in Matt Cooley's Bastile.

Read the financial report of your city in this issue.

Add to the bundle going to the Windy City the name of Mrs. Bill Connell. Welcome, Sister Connell.

Andrew and May have not fallen out recently.

After the 29th of October, when Uncle Sam beckons a boy from this home, and that home, America will begin to realize, at last, that there is a serious situation confronting this nation and the world.

Griffith Meek, out at school in Kerrville, Texas, will get pleasure until Christmas anyway, for the GCW will be a weekly visitor to his quarters.

My back hurts. Must be getting old.

Another mighty pretty gal has been added to our mailing list. Reference is made to Miss Virginia Echols at MSCW.

The "parable" checks are drifting in. Aint Uncle Sam a grand old man?

Local Board Completes First Phase Of It's Work

Having received from the 16 precincts of the county the registration cards covering the 2268 registrants obtained last Wednesday, the local Daft Board shuffled the cards, as prescribed by regulations, and has assigned each man a SERIAL NUMBER. The first man drawn was assigned No. 1, the second No. 2 and so on. A list, in quadruplicate, was made of these numbered registrants. One copy is being kept by the board. One copy is posted publicly. One copy was sent Governor Johnson. Another copy was furnished this newspaper. A list of registrants with the serial number of each will appear in this newspaper, in a sort of serial story, the first chapter being in this issue. Unless we excluded all other matter, it is physically impossible for a small newspaper to publish the entire list at one time.

The formalities at Jackson having been completed, and General Grayson's report showing 2577,303 men registered in Mississippi, the next step in this plan is the lottery in Washington next Tuesday, October 29.

This lottery in Washington that will determine the order numbers is scheduled for October 29. Immediately thereafter will come the issuing of questionnaires at a rate of approximately fifty each day as order numbers are assigned and posted. Each registrant will be allowed five days in which to return his questionnaire to his local board. On the basis of information carried in the questionnaires, classification of registants will be made. Classification is the key to selection and must be accomplished in the spirit of the Selective Training and Service Act, in the first section of which Congress has declared that "in a free society the obligations and privileges of military training and service should be shared generally in accordance with a fair and just system — — "

Selective Service regulations prescribe that every registrant belongs in one of four main classes:

Class I.—Available for service.

Class II—Deferred because of occupational status.

Class III.—Deferred because of dependents.

Class IV. Deferred specifically by law or because unfit for military service.

The four main classes are further divided into subclasses as follows:

CLASS I

Class I-A: Available: fit for general military service.

Class I-B: Available: fit only for limited military service.

Class I-C: Member of land or naval forces of United States.

Class I-D: Student fit for general military service; available not later than July 1, 1941.

Class I-E: Student fit only for limited military service; available not later than July 1, 1941.

CLASS II

Class II-A: Man necessary in his civilian activity.

CLASS III

Class III-A: Man with dependants.

CLASS IV

Class IV-A: Man who has completed service.

Class IV-B: Official deferred by law.

Class IV-C: Nondeclarent alien.

Class IV-D: Minister of religion or divinity student.

Class IV-E: Conscientious objector available only for civilian work of national importance.

Class IV-F: Physically, mentally or morally unfit.

Milton Edwards, a colored man of Route 2, Big Creek, but a resident of Mt. Nebo community, was Grenada county's Number One man in the local drawing by the Draft Board.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

A birthday party was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Futhey, Wednesday evening, Oct. 23, 1940 for their little year old son, John Eugene.

Delightful games were played and the little ones joined in gleefully. Little Miss Edith Futhey won a prize by locating a hidden treasure in the living room.

The table and chairs in the living room were draped with beautiful Halloween crepe paper and little Halloween favors were given each child. His cake was handsomely decorated with a little pink candle on top. Ice cream and delicious slices of cake were served to each one.—Contributed.

GRENADA GIRL PROMOTED

Miss Bessie Pheland Sharp, daughter of Mayor and Mrs. R. W. Sharp spent the week-end at home, leaving Tuesday to assume her new duties as Y. M. C. A. Sec. at Monroe, La. Miss Sharp has held a responsible government position at Vicksburg.

Nobody killed out there Saturday.

Rotary District Governor Meet Here Tuesday P. M.

Rotarians of Grenada were hosts on Tuesday evening at a banquet at the Barwin Hotel given in honor of the visiting District Governor, Hon. Nelson Taylor.

Mr. H. L. Honeycutt, president of the local club, introduced the distinguished visitor who, in a splendid diner speech, discussed such topics as the charity work at the Home for Cripple Adults at Memphis and the effect on national affairs by Rotarians of this and other countries. He ably discussed Fifth Column activities bring home to each gentleman present the seriousness of this menace.

A full membership was present.

Horton & Horton To Have Formal Opening Saturday

Lacking only some ornamental glasswork further to beautify the modern front of their new Green Street dry good store, Horton & Horton are having their formal opening Friday and Saturday of this week.

Sturdy and strong on the outside, and beautiful and modern on the interior, Mr. Ray Horton and his mother, Mrs. Finley Horton, owners of the new estabilishment, may well invite their many friends of this community to their opening. Customers are assured not only of the sight of a very modern store, well-stocked, and arranged according to ultra-modern designs, but also of some wonderful bargains in new, well-selected merchandise, much of which bears brands standard throughout the world.

Many useful souvenirs will be given the children and the ladies. Only a few of the outstanding bargains to be had are enumerated in the large ad appearing elsewhere in this issue. Lack of space prevented the publication of but a few of the many.

They urge that you come, whether you buy anything or not. They will be most happy to welcome you.

DRILLING STARTED AT OXBERRY

Brother Papadolos, who has a lease on about 12,000 acres of land in Township 22, Range 2, North of the Yalobusha River, has about started drilling for oil in the SE 1-4, Section 11 of that township. The well is located on lands belonging to Mr. Ed Holcomb of Holcomb and is near the home known as the Mote Ashmore home.

What's down there eight or ten thousand feet nobody knows, but here's hoping.

Chancery Court Holds Interesting Session

With Chancellor L. A. Smith of Holly Springs, on the bench, the semi-annual session of Chancery Court began in Grenada Monday morning. As usual, our affable and efficient local "chancellors" John and Rice Pressgrove, were on hand to expedite matters, examination of accounts of executors and examination of other records consumed quite a bit of time, while the usual dissatisfied men and women sought freedom from the irksome chains of matrimony.

While the legal lights of the Grenada bar appeared most in action, a representative bunch of lesser lights from afar was also present.

The writer never could understand what was what in Chancery Court, and is not going to try now.

Tom Thumb Wedding Presented

The Tom Thumb wedding and the Bigger and Better Baby Show, produced by the 20th Century Club last Thursday night provoked more fun and laughter among members of the crowded house than anything held in Grenada in what they sometimes call "blows."

The participants in this complete and ultra-modern ceremony started, of course with the lovely bride, Miss Helen Louise Kimbrough, and, ended with the groom's aunt. Between the two extremes (on the printed list) were the youthful belles and beaux of Grenada.

Such puleing babies as W. H. Kirk, Dr. Clanton and Jno Rundle to mention a few, squalled and needed a "change" about the stage, were paraded before the judges. In the midst of such infantile pulchritude, the judges stood appaled, and refused to name a winner, having the glaring eyes of mothers upon them.

Of Interest To The Legion

Attention All White World War Veterans:

You are requested to be at Grenada Fair Grounds Sunday afternoon at three o'clock for complete mobilization of our Home Guard Defense unit. Every ex-service man who lives in this county will be expected to attend this meeting, as it is of vital importance during these days of world crises and there is a number of veterans in Grenada county who have never held membership in this post whom we are urging to attend.

A good supper awaits you @ 5 pm. Please give this your attention!!

HITS OIL (?)

The wild-cat well at Hascoway was the scene of excitement Wednesday when it looked for a moment that the black gold had been struck.

Just some soapstone. Oh, me.

HEAT UP FREE

Little Joe Neely, Coleman Representative of the Grenada Auto Company, is making it mighty hard to resist buying a Coleman heater, for he offers 100 gallons of fuel oil free with a big one, and 50 gallons of fuel oil free with a little heater.

That's hot!!

Rev. J. R. Cunningham Conducts Services Here

Record crowds of interested listeners greet Rev. J. R. Cunningham, former pastor here, each morning and evening when he arises to preach at the Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Cunningham began his ministry here in Grenada in World War time and since that time has risen higher and higher in his profession and today he is pastor at Winston-Salem, N. C., yet in all his success, he seems to be the same modest, friendly man that is remembered by all Grenada people, irrespective of denominational ties.

Mr. Cunningham is house guest of his friends, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carothers, but has been entertained or regaled, at meals by many other members of the Presbyterian Church.

His series of services (don't think we Presbyterians call them "revivals") will end with the week.

Peerless Steam Laundry Ready For Operation

The Peerless Lanury is scheduled to begin operations Monday, if a large piece presser arrives.

This industry, Grenada's newest, is located on No. 7 Highway just half a mile west of the city limits on Dr. Bob Clanton's Gibbs property, and is owned and to be manazed by Buster Clanton. Mrs. Buster Clanton will help with the office work, while Mr. H. E. Clark will be superintendent of the mechanical department.

This plant contains modern machinery, all new; washing machines, dryers, pressers for each of the many kinds of articles needing attention; a boiler for furnishing the necessary steam, an artesian well and both an underground water storage and an elevated water storage, a large motor to supply motive power for the machinery, a dry room, sorting tables, and other facilities needed in a modern laundry. The boiler will be fired with wood from the Gibbs place, while the water comes from their own well. Ten people will be employed.

An attractive fence surrounds the property, and the ground itself will soon be cleared of rubbish and sowed to grass. All in all, it looks like a jam-up job.

Thus Grenada Grows.

PREACHING AT BETHEL SUNDAY

We have been requested to announce that Rev. J. R. Cunningham, now conducting a series of meetings at the Presbyterian Church, will preach at the Bethel Presbyterian Church, near Pearidge, Sunday afternoon at three o'clock.

Holcomb Recommended As Rural Carrier

Mr. William E. Holcomb, of Holcomb, recived notice Saturday last that he had received the recommendation of Congressman Ford for the position as Rural Mail Carrier on Route 1 out of Holcomb. Mr. Holcomb was first on the list of the nearly thirty applicants with a grade 96.

This route is the one which goes North from Holcomb, up through the hills and into Tallahatchie County to a point near Cascilla, thence West to the "valley," thence down the highway to Oxberry, thence back to Holcomb. At the present time, Mr. Jack Curry, Jr. who has been substituting for the retired carrier, Bates Curry, is on the route.

Mr. Holcomb is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Holcomb, is a graduate of the Holcomb Consolidated School and of Mississippi State College.

It is presumed that Mr. Ford's recommendation to the Department will be approved and that Mr. Holcomb will begin his duties in the imediate future.

NEW LAWYER HERE

Charleston, Miss. — William H. Fredric, son of the late Dr. J. E. Fredric and Mrs. Fredric and graduate of the Ole Miss School of Law, returns to his native town of Grenada to shng out his shingle. Since graduation, young Fredric has been connected with a legal firm in Charleston. He attended court in Grenada this week. His father was well known in Grenada where he was a dentist a number of years.

Bilbo and Wells seem to be having a grand time touring the Mid-West, cussing Willkie and eating tea-bone steaks and pate foi gras, if that's the way to spell it.

In a charming setting of autumn decorations, Mesdames Roger Burt and Fisher Ottenburg entertained in honor of Mrs. Charlie Ransom who is to leave this week to make her home in Natchez. The occasional tables and mantle of the Burt home held vases of brilliant hued blossoms which added their loveliness to the scene. This delightfully planned affair was inspired by the very genuine affection expressed for Mrs. Ransom and regret over her and her families departing from Grenada. The handkerchief shower was uniquely arranged in a "Friendship" book. This book with a page devoted to each guest, held an exquisite handkerchief, the signature of the donor, a kodak picture and a picture cut from magazine representing that person's character-istic which of course is familiar to the honoree and other friends. This book was presented Mrs. Ransom when all the guests arrived. Following this delightful courtesy the hostess served a chicken spaghetti plate and salad. The afternoon was then spent in playing bridge. Attending were the following: Mesdames Chas. Ransom, Will Ransom, F. R. Lickfold, Jr., Walter Garner, Sidney Kent, Walton Todd, O. R. Lilly, S. H. STUDIO RECITAL

The Nationally popular "God Bless America" was the first number on the program Friday afternoon, when Miss Inez Donaldson, music and voice teacher at Grenada schools, presented a group composed of piano and voice pupils in a Studio recital. "God Bless America" was sung beautifully by the Glee Club.

The pleasure of attending this affair where the youngest pupil was given the same interest and appreciation by the audience as the older ones, was deepened into real pride of "our" children when we noted that their poise and accomplishments were so attractively blended. The following pupils were presented:

Julia Mae Bingham, Bettye Isenberg, Katherine Patty, Betty Brewer, Olive Simmes, Johnnie Leverette, Bonnie Jean Allison, Margaret Green, Mary Jane Daigre, Martha Cullen, Nellie Joiner, Dorothy Talbert, Carolyn Whitaker, Marjory Chapman, J. Y. Smith, James Thomas.

On Friday, October 18, Mr. David Eugene Horton was honored by his daughter, Mrs. R. L. Spain, at a beautifully planned birthday dinner, celebrating the 78th anniversary of his birth.

The home was made festive on this occasion by placing lovely bouquets of flowers in each room.

The dining table, where places were laid for ten, was centered by a large birthday cake. The cake was white with pink decorations and held 79 tiny pink candles.

Dinner was served at noon to the following kinsmen, all of whom had birthdays in October. Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Horton, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Spain, Mr. Jack Sanderson, Margurete Spain, Mr. Finley Horton, all relatives, and Mr. Paul Artman, a close friend of the family.

CORRECTION

In the account of the Murphy-Clark wedding last week, we inadvertently stated that Mr. Murphy was the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Murphy, which was incorrect, as the only son of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Murphy is Mr. Spencer Murphy, teaching at Moorhead. Everyone, including Mrs. S. L. Murphy, recognizes the fact that the groom, Mr. Robert Murphy, is an outstanding young man; and the only harm done was in the inadvertent substitution of initials.

MRS. GERARD HOSTESS

Members of the Tuesday Bridge Club gathered at the home of Mrs. Frank Gerard at noon Tuesday for luncheon and games. The reception rooms were beautifully decorated with fall flowers in brilliant colors. Three tables were draped and silver arranged for the serving of lunch when all of the guests arrived. The beautiful plate contained creme' chicken with mushroom sauce, stuffed celery, potato cups with peas, hot holls, olives and pickle. Desert course consisted of ice cream with raspberry sauce and cake. Coffee was served.

Mrs. R. E. Hall was the only non-member present.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER HONORING REV. AND MRS. HUFFSTATLER

By Gore Spring Writer

On Friday night, October 18th a miscellaneous shower was given in honor of the Rev. and Mrs. F. Z. Huffstatler by the members of the Pleasant Grove Church. At 7 o'clock all gathered at the church that had been beautifully decorated in fall flowers and to this fine couple two large baskets of useful and beautiful gifts were presented. A number of songs were sung by the audience and then prayer by the Rev. Mr. Huffstatler, following was a talk by Prof. Eugene McGahey expressing the members appreciation of having this fine couple with them and how it brought a sad gloom on each and every one for them to leave. Then Rev. Huffstatler made a talk thanking the people for their hospitality and kindness thru their stay and their appreciation for the beautiful gifts. Delicious refreshments were served.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to express my thanks and appreciation to Dr. Caruthers and the nurses of the Grenada Hospital for the kindnesses shown me during my stay there. You did everything you could to make me comfortable and feel at home. I will always remember you as a bunch of the sweetest girls I know.

May God bless Dr. Caruthers in his work.

CARD OF THANKS

Henry Ford, with all his billions, could not have received better treatment than I did during my recent stay in Grenada Hospital. I would that I had the ability to write out just how sincere is my gratitude for the countless nice things that my friends in Grenada did for me. Even if I had the ability to do so, the columns of the Grenada County Weekly could not contain the article. I did not know that I had so many friends. I did not know that people could be so good to an old, sick man like myself, unable ever to repay them except by merely thanking them. Oftentimes tears came to my eyes, and I cried unashamed as one after another brought flowers, fruits, tobacco, and, if nothing else, a cheery "Hello, how do you feel, Jim," which

When Roy Doak walked in just now, I thought maybe he had an ad. Just another false alarm. He only wanted an address.

I appreciated just as much. The [illegible] with their kindly sympathetic treatment of me, more than mere Whyte Whitaker's eternal phrase "Ain't they sweet." The doctors devoted as much attention to me as they would have to John Rockefeller, and just as skillfully.

I want to say too how much I appreciated the letter from my young friend, Dick Rule, away out West, and from my boyhood friend, Lee Taylor of Memphis.

With such unselfish friends, I cannot but feel now that, however miserable my life has been, I have things that no mortal agency can take from me—my friends. God bless all of them.

Sincerely,

JIM LAMB.

Last year about this time Mr. Rundle asked eery boy in high school to pledge himself on his honor not to engage in foolish and malicious pranks on Halloween night. Every boy took this pledge "Come Halloween," some thirty or more street lights were broken, lights which were put up to make the streets safer to walk upon, lights were put up by the city for all to benefit by. Yet they were broken, and by some of those who took the pledge. This is just one instance of the damage done. Other acts injurious to both public and private property were committed. No doubt some of those you did these things must have felt proud of themselves; they had destroyed something not belonging to them; they had broken their word to Mr. Rundle, and they had distinguished themselves as being thoughtless and irresponsible.

Whether Mr. Rundle asks the boys to take the pledge or not, they should refrain from making this year a repetition of last. After all, what is it to break a light or knock down a fence? The most ignorant savage could do either.

Why not let's see if we can't do better than we did last year. Lea's try to redeem ourselves somewhat for what happened last year. It will certainly be appreciated by all if this unnecessary destruction is left off this year.

SAFETY FIRST

New traffic lights have begun to blossom all over Grenada. These traffic lights were put up to try to decrease the number of accidents to both drivers and pedestrians. Of especial interest to the school children is the new traffic light between the two school buildings at the intersection of Line and Donkin. This light will simplify the work of the boys of the Safety Patrol boys and will make smaller children become more safety conscious if they are taught to obey the signals. Let us, then, as guides to these younger children, set the example in making our school a school with a motto of 'Safety First" for every boy and girl.

HIGH SCHOOL OBSERVES PATRIOTIC DAY

Wednesday was a day of great bliss and joy to all of the High School pupils, since they were allowed a whole day of peace and freedom, unhampered by the duties of school life. Some spent the day one way and some another. A good many spent it in recuperating from the strenuous eefforts of the week before., and caught up on much needed sleep. Ernestine McNulty, Brinker Thrower, Tommy Houston, and, we expect, a good many more, spent it in idle contentment. Louise Avent, Anne Duncan, Caroline Whitaker, and Dorothy Talbert had a fine time playing bridge. A few energetic souls like Thomas Bell worked all day. Anne Odom and Pauline Richardson went hiking, while Marguerite Stanley and Betty Edwards tore up a kodak and a roll of films trying to take pictures.

The students all sympathize with the hard-working teachers, but Wednesday, October 16 will be a day long remembered for its pleasure and freedom.

But on the shoulder of his coat,
It showed for several weeks.

The lastest organization in school is the "Man Hater's Club."To give an idea of the nature of this commendable group, we have gathered the following statistics:

Motto: "Love no man, not even your brother; if girls must love, love one another."

Aim: To raise funds for an old maids' home.

Byword: "Men are deceivers all."

Flower: Bachelor Button.

Place of Meeting: On the front steps (in good view of the Boys' Entrance.)

Time of Meeting: When nobody has a date.

Bobby Weir: "That girl over there is a live wire."

Tommy Houston: "Introduce me; I want to be shocked."

Willie Townsend: They say that some of the teachers live a fast life."

Frank Matthews: "I don't believe it: none of them passed me last year."

Fizz: "I'm a writer."
Fuzz: "What? You an author?"
Fizz: "Not exactly an author I write insurance."

Real Gratitude

Jim Lamb, in his Card of Thanks published elsewhere, is genuinely grateful for the many kindnesses shown him during his recent stay in the hospital. Our tears mingled with his when he recited a few of the many instances where the people of Grenada showed their kindness by bringing flowers, fruit and other mute evidences of good wishes. Jim praises the people of Grenada for these many things, as he should. Certainly these favors were unselfish, and not like some favors which are extended in hope of greater future rewards, for Jim is old, broken and almost "down."

But, while Jim will not admit it, these many kind deeds were in repayment to Jim Lamb for the fine work he has done, always unostentatiously, for the youth of Grenda, not only of the present generation, but of the generation now approaching middle age. Many a father has said, "If Jim Lamb goes along, my boy can go." They knew that the boys liked Jim and that Jim would exert upon these boys a good influence, and that, with Jim, they would be safer than if they were with another. Jim Lamb has always enjoyed the confidence of the boys. In an unpretentious, unassuming way, he has "straightened out" many a boy who, otherwise, might have gone crooked. Then, too, Jim Lamb has been most generous with his own very limited means. Many a dollar of his has found its way into the hand of a less fortunate person. Many a basket of fruit to cheer a lonely person came, without the receiver's knowledge, from Jim Lamb.

Jim Lamb feels indebted to Grenada people and his appreciation is most real and most genuine, but we believe when Life's sublime Scorekeeper adds up the score He will report that Grenada owes Jim Lamb more than Jim Lamb owes Grenada.

The Pittmans

Last week, we carried a news item about the three sons of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pittman, of southeast Grenada County. Each of these three boys was reared under what ordinary town people would call hard conditions, remote from markets, remote from good schools and remote from the so-called "cultural elements" of life. It is quite evident, from the success each has met while yet young, that they were reared in an outstanding home by outstanding parents, even if train whistles could not be heard, even if their neighborhood afforded only a one-teacher school, and even if so-called "cultural atmosphere"—most of which is hooey anyway—was absent.

The Pittman parents are honest, thrifty, hard-working and God-fearing people and live in what many consider a poor section of the county, by the practice of the old time virtues, they educated their boys to the point that these sons now occupy responsible positions (and with life still ahead of them and with the future bright), and, though we do not actually know, we will be willing to bet their parents do not owe anyone a nickel.

We want to congratulate the boys, and want to add greater congratulations to the parents.

"Draw Day"

The great days in the South are the "draw days" when on the first day of each of the six months beginning with March, the farm tenants approach their respective landlords, or furnishing merchants, and "draw" rations, or money, to be used during the ensuing month to help produce the cotton crop. THAT "Draw Day" is a grand day.

But, they are going to have a "Draw Day" in Washington sometime this month, maybe the 29th thereof, when President Roosevelt is going to reach his hand into the fiscal bag and draw out, one by one, the capsules freighted with so much portentiousness to those individuals who back in the home counties, also bear similar numbers. THAT "Draw Day" is going to be a pain to some fatty young gal.

Oh, me.

Let's Have A Real General Election

General Election in Mississippi has always been a sort of meaningless affair, when the election officials fooled around and gossiped all day, and usually had the votes counted by merely counting the number of voters who voted.

There is more opposition to the Democratic nominee in this state today than there has ever been to the nominee, with the possible exception of the General Election when Al Smith was a candidate. Even in the aggregate, however, this opposition, when contrasted with those who either favor Mr. Willkie or disfavor Mr. Roosevelt, is small.

If only the usual number of Mississippi Democratic voters vote in the November election, and, if every voter who favors Mr. Willkie and evry voter who looks with disfavor upon Mr. Roosevelt, does vote, this Republican nominee will make the best "showing" on a percentage basis ever made by a Republican nominee since Reconstruction days.

Let every qualified voter cast his vote in the November election, be he favorable to Mr. Roosevelt or be he favorable to Mr. Willkie, so that the results of the election will reflect the true sentiments of the people of this state.

Just received a QUIZ on Railroads and Railroading issued by the Association of American Railroads. This is a most informative book and is being thoroughly enjoyed.

Ex-Alderman Whitaker asked us to state that he wished his former associates well in their work.

The County Budget

Published elsewhere is the county budget, and it shows slight increases throughout its length and breadth, and it is a wonder that the supervisors have been able to keep the levy as low as it is.

As we have said many times before in these columns, the "snakes" would begin to crawl out of the homestead exemption provision of state law after a while. The slight increase in the various levies are but the first rustling of the first "snake." Others will follow year by year.

Homestead exemption is all right if the state and county can stand it. Rather we should say "if the non-homestead property can stand it." It is axiomatic that, if taxes do not come from ONE source, they will come from ANOTHER source; that, if the homes are exempted, then the other property must pick up the burden shed by the homes.

As taxes on non-homestead property must inevitably rise, the point somewhere will be reached when that class of property becomes too "hot" to hold. More and more property will crawl under the homestead tent, until, if trends persist, there will be nothing to tax except business property, including public service corporations, stocks of goods and cars.

Suppose, if you want to have a bad dream, that Grenada County was getting deeper and deeper into debt (instead of crawling out several hundred thousad dollars in recent years). If that condition existed, the tax levy would be greater than it is.

This homestead exemption provision is particularly hard on a county like Grenada, which has many large land holdings and which has large industries to milk.

In spite of small raises here and there through the tax levy for Grenada County, we think, under the conditions explained, it is a darn light levy.

City Business

The most important statement issued by our largest corporation, The City of Grenada, is being published this week. Careful study of this statement by the taxpayers should be made to the end that they become better acquainted with their community's business.

It probably will be noted that the indebtedness of the city is greater than that of last year. But it should be realized that Grenada has more in the way of physical assets. Look at the new paving!! Hardly a street unpaved, or one that is not in the current program!!

The careful reader will note that the Water Fund contains less money than last year, in spite of its earning capacity. But it should be observed that an immense amount of new water mains and sewers have been installed in the growing Southern part of town; and it should also be taken into account that the Water Fund has bourn a burden not legitimately its own. It may not be known, but it should be known, however, that from henceforth the Water Fund will not be used as the Cinderella, that is tapped for every conceivable purpose, as the Board has so ordered.

The careful reader will also note for the first time in such report, an item covering the salary of an assessor. This new expense will bear rich dividends in increases due to two causes: first, increase in values of property hitherto grossly underassessed, and, second, the placing on the tax rolls of property hitherto untaxed and unassessed at all.

From his experience on both the county board and the city board, the writer has come to the conclusion that, oftentimes, the individuals who beseige the boards with pleas for this and that appropriation, not covered by the budget, are the first individuals to protest any raise in the tax rate; and this is distinctly unfair to board members. The money that they authorize to be spent comes from but one source, the pockets of the taxpayers. If the taxpayers prevail upon the board members to make expenditures, not provided for in the budget, just to that extent do they cause the budgets to become unbalanced.

If taxpayers were one-half as urgent in their demands for reduced expenses, and for economy in giverment—and come before the boards and voice their protests, as they are to urge unauthorized and unprovided-for expenditures, a real era of economy in government would be dawning.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment

The people will again on November 5, be called upon to vote upon a proposed constitutional amendment that 99.66 percent of them do not know a damn thing about.

The best thing for the voter to do, when he comes to that amendment, is to skip it entirely, for it is always better to let things be as they are than to make a change that you know nothing of.

It is well to remember that ALL amendments are proposed by some selfish interests, even if oftentimes these selfish intersts are hidden.

The safest thing to do is to vote "No," if you vote at all.

If anyone ot the Vets Hospital reads this, go and tell Dr. Walker and Dr. Rex that I will be coming back "home" if I do not get on all right.

RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI, TWO-THIRDS OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES AGREEING THERETO, That the following amendment to the constitution of the State of Mississippi be submited to the qualified electors of the state for ratification or rejection at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. preacher and his wife out in new shirts and dresses, bath towels, etc. Thanks, what a relief!

Mr. and Mrs. Pittman, from the eastern part of the county, came to church Sunday and were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Neale. Come again.

It is reported that Junior Worsham was stricken wiht home-firesldistis soon after reaching the CCC camp at Coffeeville. It was thought his case was hopeless. But after treatment with the soup of mother sympathy and brother persuasion it is thought that he will be able to remain at camp.

Our good editor was seen skipping across the street Saturday like a sixteen year old. That trip to the hospital sure did put the pep in his bones.—Reporter.

Here are the facts!

- When you see long discounts or tricky offers don't be misled. Are the prices quoted on first, second, third or fourth line tires?
- You don't want the lowest priced tire in town—if it might blow out tomorrow. You don't want a tire "bargain" that has to be replaced in 5000 miles or less.
- You do want the most miles, the greatest safety and trouble-free service—at the lowest first cost.... That's what we've got!

Get a better deal here—no matter what type or size tire you buy!

- Whether you want THE U.S. TIRE, the Royal De Luxe, or the Royal Master, America's foremost safety tire, get our deal before you buy any tire.

HOLCOMB NEWS

Rev. Roy Grisham from Grenada, taught a Training Class in the Methodist Church, school here using the book, "What Is Teaching". About twenty were in attendance, eleven received credits. Bro. Grisham taught his course very interestingly and we feel it will be helpful in our church school work.

Rev. and Mrs. Grisham and two children were dinner guests of Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Bailey and Betty on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. H. K. McMahan honored her husband with a lovely three course dinner on Friday evening at 7 o'clock, this being his natal day. The living and dining rooms were decorated with varicolor fall flowers. Guests list included Mr. and Mrs. A. Y. McBride, and three sons, Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Bailey and daughter, Misses Helen McKinnon and Elizabeth Perkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm May and Miss Ann Taylor Duckettt from Greenwood, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. K. McMahon.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hobson and Richard, Jr. Mrs. Aven and Miss Sara Louise Aven spent Sunday in Glen Allen with relatives.

Misses Boschut, McKinnon, McCafferty and Mr. Ross called on friends in Ita Bena last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. G. O. Sanford spent the weekend with relatives near New Albany.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Rice spent Sunday with Mrs. Rice's mother in Oxford.

Miss Nellie Quinn Hayden and L. T. Hayden, Jr. were at home for the week-end. Nellie Quinn from the school in Enid and L. T. from Miss State.

Miss Mattie Martin and mother, Mrs. Martha William Holcomb visited relatives in Memphis Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Y. McBride attended the football game at State Saturday. They were accompanied by Mabel Louise Greaver and Billy Wayne.

Mrs. Dotson Hayden was called home Monday to attend the funeral of her uncle, who had died at Drew. Burial was in Eupora.

Mrs. Tackett and little daughter, Dee Ann, have returned from a visit with relatives in Texas.

We regret to state that our dear friend, Mrs. Addice Dubard is not improving as we would like. She suffered a stroke recently. She is always so happy to have her friends call.

The "Knitting Class" met with Mrs. Wade Rice on Thursday afternoon. Nineteen ladies were present. Everyone seemed to be enjoying learning and working together. Many beautiful sweaters and quilts were in the making. Martha had made the rooms lovely with golden rod an other fall flowers. After two hours of work, Mrs. Rice assisted by her mother, served a delicious salad and ice course.

I say "Good" for that Woman's Society of Christian Service at Duck Hill. There will always be a strong tie between "me and thee." Those enjoyable days we had with you shall long remain in my memory.

We are happy to have one of the faithful workers of your society, Mrs. Margaret Walker attend services at Tie Plant. We feel we are seeing some of our best friends when we see her and Bro. Sledge and recall with pleasure so many happy hours with them and their precious mother while we were in Duck Hill.

The Womans Society of Christian Service met with Mrs. Dot Hayden this week. Eleven members were present. The program was very interesting. Mrs. Rice presided. Mrs. Martha Rice was the leader. Mrs. Holcomb read a poem. After the Scripture reading, the introduction of the large map was given by the leader. Then Mrs. Mary Hayden gave a discussion and pointed out on map the different places where the woman's work is being carried on in the foreign fields.

At the close, Mrs. Hayden and Mrs. Elliott co-hostesses served a delectable salad and ice course. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Holcomb and Mrs. McBride in November.

CARD OF THANKS

Words inadequate to express to the people of Grenada and vicinity for their many thoughts of kindness during the recent illness of our loved one. Especially to Dr. Avent and his entire hospital staff, who made it a real haven for him while he was suffering so much. From the depths of our hearts, we want to thank Brothers Henderson, Thrower and Pharr for their spiritual support, which helped lots.

Seen, Heard and Told By The Editor

Speaking of cotton, suppose Grenada depended entirely on the proceeds from the county's cotton crop. Should that be true Grenada would be no larger than Duck Hill.

Col. Henry Kahn and Mr. Holmes were cheerful visitors in our immediate midst Monday.

By the way, Ward Alexander said they are just TOO sweet.

Avent McElwrath sorter hinted that his fellow helper, Farmer Bingham, was a great hand at ghining 420 lb. bales, that the latter counted bales, not pounds.

Little Doc Provine has more medals than Napoleon or Hitler.

Thank goodness, Avent McElwrath finally sold a bale of cotton and had the seed money left. Guess why.

The real championship bout, Roosevelt vs Willkie, will come off shortly. I will bet 2 to 1 that Roosevet carries Mississippi.

Somebody even threw away an empty pint bottle on sacred South Street Saturday or Sunday night.

The Mississippi Forestry Commission is in good standing again on the G.W. books, and, we hope, in good standing elsewhere.

A. G. Donley, an honest, upright and substantial colored man of Dubard, paid his subscription recently. In fact, A. G. is a charter member.

John Emmons, of Oxberry, finally joined a baile. Thank goodness.

After notifying a Pearidge subscriber that he was due some subscription money, we received the following letter. I got yore letter about what I owe you, now please be patshunt and when some fool pays me I will pay you. If this was judgment day and you was no more prepared to meet your maiker than I am to pay this bill you would shore go to hell, hoping that you will do this I am yours truly ——

Brother McCarty here in my ward showed me a letter in which another debtor was in a helluva lot worse shape than our Pearidge delinquent, but we cannot print it in this great religious organ.

Buford Martin says he wants two sample copies. We will invite comparison.

If all the Republicans and others favoring Willkie vote Tuesday, November 5, and if only the usual number of Democrats and others favoring Roosevelt vote, then, here in Grenada, Willkie is likely to make quite a show.

Dick Nason and Whit Singleton, plutocrats of Belzoni and Bew Springs respectively, were airing out in Grenada the last Sabbath.

It looks like Ole Miss and the A. & M. College both have been able to hire good teams this year.

Our Mr. Terrell must have come out Monday for he did not show up about the Road Job.

Several from the free stamp were trading in Grenada Saturday and we are always glad to see our friends from that state in Mississippi. There is quite a feud of kinship between Tallabatchie and the State of Mississippi.

Our old hospital friend, Slim McCreary from Vardaman, state of Calhoun, visited with us a short time last Friday, enroute to the Vets Hospital from his home where he was called on the sad mission of participating in his brother's funeral ceremony.

Aint they sweet.

Two of the old lady's cousins Mr. and Mrs. Charles Enbright of Chicago, made our home a brief far too brief visit Monday. Note to Chuck Trotter at Ole Miss: we tried to call you over the phone, but you were off somewhere messing around. Hope Charlie has better luck chasing Ed Whitehead in Jackson.

My Column

Whyte Whitaker Jr.

Saturday morning I boarded a Tri-State Bus for a little city. It is described by an inscription on the Cornerstone of the Modernistic City Hall. The 78 inscribed words reads: "A trading post in the wilderness of the Chickasaw country before the Treaty of Pontotoc in 1832. Incorporated by the Legislature of 1837. Home of the University of Mississippi since its foundation in 1848. Burned by the invading Army of the United States August 22, 1864. Restored by the courage and genious of her people to become a progressive city awake alike to present changes and to the richness of culture and tradition of the Old South."

Oxford has (they stole our slogan) or Grenada has (we're using it). We in Grenada contend that our city is the cross roads of North Mississippi, the Oxford Chamber of Commerce insists that their city is the interesting spot. Here is what they have their contentions: one National Cemetery, located as the marble orchard, (yard) is the finest of North Mississippi; district headquarters for the Federal Court of the Northern District; headquarters of many other institutions of area wide operation. Reaching it are good highways 78 to Batesville and then on 6 or 78 to Holly Springs; also highway 7. Oxford is 72 miles from Memphis. The main line of the Illinois Central Railroad and the buses of the Tri-State Transit Co. serve the city.

At twelve o'clock the members of the Mississippi Press dribbled in to lunch out at the Ten Hornet. This delightful affair was planed by the Oxford Eagle staff. We are sorry that quite a few of the Press members were unable to attend. The invocation at the meeting was "God Bless America," we print the words of this fine, often heard song. If you don't know the wording of it learn them now, for every real Hooded Americus should be able to sing this song without looking at a pamphlet.

"God Bless America
Land that I Love,
Stand beside her and guide her
Through the night with a light from above.
From the mountains to the prairies,
To the ocean, white with foam,
God Bless America, My home, sweet Home.

***

In the meantime some of the industrious press members were making arrangements for the feature attraction of the afternoon the Ole Miss-Duquesne football. Assistant Editor of the Oxford Eagle had arranged for free tickets for the whole How to talked the athletic department out of all those free passes is more than any of us can understand.

Professor Horace B. Brady, Director of University News Bureau made the welcome address for the University of Mississippi. He was much hitting for Chancellor Butts. He said a lots of good things about the Mississippi Press but forgot to put in a good word for the University of Mississippi. Here are a few things of interest he said about the institution of higher learning.

"The University of Mississippi, best known from coast to coast today because of its great football team, the rampaging Johnny Reds. Bullser Kinard and Parker Hall, the All-Americans has held a foremost place in Southern education for nearly a century.

"Fourteen hundred and eighty-two students in 1939 attended the College of Liberal Arts, the Schools of Law, Engineering, Education, Medicine, Pharmacy and Commerce and Business Administration. A million dollars worth of new dormitories in the last two years will attract a steady increase each year.

Each summer more than 500 students attend the Summer School at Ole Miss.

"Alumni and friends of the University throughout the country know it as "Ole Miss," that traditional affectionate term coming down from the days when each beloved mistress of the plantation was "Ole Miss."

"The location of the University is unsurpassed in point of healthfulness and beauty. Equipment, buildings and grounds make a total valuation of over $3,500,000.

"The financial secretary of the University has set a figure of $300 for men and $350 for women as the complete annual cost for the academic student which is the lowest in the U. S. for a state university.

Mississippi today has more young men and women in colleges in proportion to white population than any state in the nation."

***

We were still gobbling down the delicious food prepared by the Tea Hound chef while R. N. Williams, Oxford's Mayor, welcomed us to their fair city. Mayor Williams let us know a lots of ideal qualities about his city. Referring to its cleanliness he stated "Oxford has a silver cup to prove it is the "Cleanest City in Mississippi;" has wide, paved streets, lined with great and old oaks (to one of which General Grant tied his horse); has a citizenship immeasurably proud of beautiful and well kept homes.

Speaking of the business concerns, he said "Oxford has two motion picture theatres, two 50-room hotels, more than 100 business establishments, (no) pool halls, dance halls of "juke joints."

***

The address at the Press Luncheon was delivered by Hon. M. S. Conner, former Governor of Mississippi, and Athletic Commissioner of the Southeastern Conference. He stressed the need of the Press support in carrying out the program of taking professionalism out of football. He went on to say that the Southeastern Conference is open and aside board concerning their athletic scholarships.

***

On to the football game. The kick off at 2:30 and the game was on between the Johnny Reds and Dusquesne. Ole Miss was out played, piling up only 8 first downs to 12 for the Dukes. The invaders gained 186 yards by rushing to 125 for the Reds. However, the Ole Miss team doubled the Dukes in pass yardage.

***

Never have I witnessed such deceptive plays as those used by Duquesne. Never, never have I seen such a line-up. It was almost impossible to pronounce them. Nearly all the players' last names ended with "ski". From that I presume they were either Russians or Polacks. All in all it was one of the best games I have had the privilege of seeing, to say the least. It was the roughest fists just seemed to land on someone's chin all the time.

***

That night I went to the Homecoming dance, sponsored by the "M" Club. The music was grand furnished by the Mississippians and dancing with those Ole Miss beauties leave one with memories of delight.

***

Sunday morning I departed for Grenada and as I left this picturesque little town I had one thought in my mind . . . to, in some way, repay the many courtesies to those who made my stay there such a pleasant one.

To The automobile drivers of the City and County of Grenada:-

I want to express the appreciation of our Police Department for the wonderful cooperation you have given us in the observance of our stop lights, double parking, speeding, etc. Without your help we can not accomplish anything. It is true that our lights are still being run by some few but I believe it is due to absent mindedness, and with no thought of breaking the law. Any way we have come a long way toward making our City a safer and more desirable place to live. So pray you continue and make our town the safest City in Mississippi to drive in.

Thanking you very cordially.
